Paul Foulkes ANZAED Clinician Scholarship

The annual Paul Foulkes ANZAED Clinician Scholarship is a prize for a clinician who can demonstrate that their attendance at the ANZAED conference will be of substantial benefit to the clinician, his/her organization, his/her clients and the community at large. A clinician working in the eating disorder field who is a member of ANZAED is eligible to apply for this scholarship. The Executive Committee will select the applicant it believes best fulfils these criteria. The prize will be exemption from conference registration (27th - 28th August) and an additional $500. (NOTE: the applicant will need to register, pay registration and attend the conference. His/her paper will be adjudicated on the day; the winner will have the conference registration reimbursed and be paid the sum of $500.)

An application should address the following points:

1. Describe how the clinician, his/her organization, his/her clients and the community at large will benefit from this scholarship;
2. Provide a reference in support of the application from the organization in which he/she works or a professional who is aware of the clinicians work.

IMPORTANT: Applications due Friday, 18 June 2010

Please submit applications to Dr Roger Mysliwiec: rogerm@adhb.govt.nz
