

ANZAED/AED ICED EARLY INVESTIGATOR TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIPS 2021

Award Support

1. Two awards will be provided in 2021
2. 1st prize: As ICED2021 is to be held virtually, ANZAED will provide AUD$2,000.00 as a research stipend to be administered by the applicant's University or workplace. AED will provide full conference registration.
3. 2nd prize: ANZAED will provide AUD$1,000.00 as a research stipend to be administered by the applicant's University or workplace. AED will provide full conference registration.

Eligibility

1. Applicants must be members of ANZAED.
2. Applicants must be honours/ fourth year students, postgraduate students, or within three years of fourth-year or postgraduate degree.
3. Applicants must have abstract(s) (poster and/or oral) accepted for presentation for which they are the first author at the upcoming AED International Conference on Eating Disorders
4. An applicant cannot have previously received either the AED /ANZAED award in years past or first prize in the AED/ANZAED award from 2018 onwards. Applicants may also have applied for a different AED Travel Fellowship but may only accept ONE such award from ANZAED/AED or AED in 2020/2021.
5. Applicants may not be current members of the ANZAED Executive Committee.

Application Materials:

1. Applicants must submit their accepted abstract(s), a curriculum vitae and a letter from his/her training program or document verifying status as a young investigator (as defined above).
2. Applicants must submit, a personal statement (of no more than 500 words) address the following Selection Criteria
 - i. The quality, significance and innovativeness of the research you will be presenting at ICED;
 - ii. Their potential to make a significant contribution to the field of eating disorder research; and
 - iii. The impact that this Scholarship will have on their future research training/career.
3. These materials will be submitted to anzaed@anzaed.org.au by 5 pm Sydney time Monday 8 February 2021.

Selection Procedures

1. Eligibility, including ANZAED membership status, will be verified by ANZAED prior to the full review of applications.
2. Eligible applications will be reviewed by a panel of reviewers, selected by the ANZAED Executive Committee. The panel will score the applications according to the Selection Criteria. The two top-ranked applications will be sent to the ANZAED Executive Committee and AED Scientific and Awards Committee for approval.
3. Applicants will be advised of the outcome in March 2021.